The 2024 INTA Annual Meeting, which is convened at Atlanta, Georgia, USA from May 18 to May 22, 2024, is the largest annual IP gathering featuring over 9,600 registrants from 130+ countries around the world.

Five partners of Wanhuida Intellectual Property are invited to moderate table topics at the AM.

On 18th May, Partner Lei Yongjian moderates the session titled “How can the Procedures Impact the Outcome of Cases before the Trademark Office and before the Courts in China?” Participants from the US, Germany, and China discuss a slew of issues including the suspension mechanism before the CNIPA and the Chinese judiciary, new notarization and legalization practice under the Hague Convention, and other procedural approaches that can be utilised in various types of cases.

On 19th May, Partner Li Yunquan moderates the session titled “Positive and Negative Changes of Trademark Practice in China”.
